Christine Blandhol

christine.blandhol@bi.no ∘ www.christineblandhol.com

Employment

BI Norwegian Business School 2026-present

Assistant Professor, Department of Finance

Education

Princeton University 2020-2026

PhD in Economics. Dissertation: "Essays on Firm Behavior"

Brown University 2013-2017

B.Sc. Applied Mathematics-Economics, magna cum laude with honors.

Publications

1. "When is TSLS actually LATE?" with John Bonney, Magne Mogstad, and Alexander Torgovitsky. Review of Economic Studies, 2026.

Working Papers

1. "Who Benefits from Worker Representation on Corporate Boards?" with Lancelot Henry De-Frahan, Magne Mogstad, Peter Nilsson, and Ola L. Vestad. R&R (2nd round) at the Economic Journal.

Work in Progress

1. "Curbing Tax Flight? Aggregate Effects of Taxing Entrepreneur Migration" with Elena Aguilar.
2. "What Do Corporate Boards Do? Aggregate Effects of Mandated Board Gender Quotas" with Ingrid Huitfeldt and Ragnhild Schreiner.
3. "Firms' Skill Demand and Worker Sorting: Education vs. Experience" with Ragnar Alne and Eyo Herstad.

Professional Activities

Refereeing

Review of Economic Studies, Journal of Political Economy

Teaching

Princeton ECO 302: Econometrics (TA, Fall 2022, Fall 2023, and Fall 2024)

Princeton ECO 300: Microeconomic Theory (TA, Fall 2022)

Awards and Fellowships

Charlotte Elizabeth Procter Honorific Fellowship	2025-2026
Graduate Fellowship, Griswold Center for Economic Policy Studies	2024–2025
PhD Fellowship (≈ $20,000 per year), Norwegian Central Bank	2020–2025
Karen T. Romer Undergraduate Teaching and Research Award, Brown University	2016

Languages

Norwegian (native), English